

One Act Plays performance dates mid-October at the Maureen O Hara Studio, dlr Mill Theatre.

Circuit Play

'Willow' by Catherine McKiernan. Directed by Joanne Keane.

Runner-up in the 2023 DLI/ADCI One Act Playwriting Competition, 'Willow' is a new piece of Irish writing and this is its debut.

'Willow' is set in a small seaside town in the west of Ireland. A tale of love, loss and longing, the entire play takes place in one day, the year is 2019.

'Our truth may not always be "the truth"'.

Characters:

Sean Halligan, late forties/early fifties
Anna O'Farrell, late forties/early fifties.
Mags Halligan, late sixties/early seventies
Andy Halligan, late forties/early fifties.

7.30pm Monday and Tuesday August 5th and 6th at the Scouts Den.

'Guess Who's Coming for Coffee?' Directed by Aisling Ni Fhoghlu

Set in a small Dublin café, Guess Who's Coming for Coffee explores the trials and tribulations that come with the exciting world of online dating.

Finding love can be tricky in 2024, for people of all ages...

Characters:

Paula - 50s, struggling café owner
Harry - 60s, her only customer, looking for love
Marie - 20s, wants to be wiser than her years
Phil - 20s, thinks he's cool, actually quite dim

7.30pm Monday and Tuesday August 5th and 6th at the Scouts Den.